FACE YOUR EX™

Confidence Audio -A 5-Minute Reset Before You See Your Ex. By Dr. Grace Anderson

[Soft instrumental music begins]

Hello, my dear,

In just a few moments, you may be seeing someone who once had a powerful influence over your emotions.

Perhaps you're on your way to a court hearing.

Perhaps you're collecting or handing over your children.

Perhaps you've unexpectedly seen him somewhere you never imagined.

Whatever has brought you to this moment...

I want you to remember one very important truth.

Today is different.

You are not the same woman you were months or years ago.

You have survived.

You have healed.

You have grown.

And today, you are walking in with something far more powerful than fear.

You are walking in with dignity.

Take a slow breath in...

Hold it...

Now breathe out gently.

FACE YOUR EX - CONFIDENCE AUDIO SCRIPT.

Again...

Breathe in calm...

Breathe out tension.

One more time...

Fill your lungs completely...

And slowly let everything unnecessary leave your body.

Notice your shoulders relaxing.

Notice your jaw softening.

Notice your heartbeat beginning to settle.

Your body is remembering that you are safe in this moment.

Now quietly say to yourself...

I am safe.

Again...

I am safe.

His presence cannot define me.

His opinions cannot diminish me.

His words cannot control me.

His expressions cannot steal my peace.

The chapter where he controlled my emotions has ended.

Today...

I choose how I feel.

Imagine yourself standing tall.

Your shoulders are relaxed.

FACE YOUR EX - CONFIDENCE AUDIO SCRIPT.

Your breathing is steady.

Your head is held high.

You are walking with quiet confidence.

Not because life has been easy...

But because you have become stronger.

You no longer need to prove anything.

You no longer need his approval.

You no longer need to explain yourself.

Peace speaks for itself.

If he looks at you...

You remain calm.

If he ignores you...

You remain calm.

If he tries to provoke you...

You remain calm.

If he appears confident...

You remain calm.

Because your confidence no longer depends on his behaviour.

It comes from within.

His actions belong to him.

Your peace belongs to you.

Now picture an invisible shield surrounding you.

It is made of confidence...

FACE YOUR EX - CONFIDENCE AUDIO SCRIPT.

Wisdom...

Self-respect...

And peace.

Nothing harmful can pass through this shield.

Unkind looks bounce away.

Critical words lose their power.

Old memories drift past like clouds.

You notice them...

But you do not become them.

You stay grounded.

You stay centred.

You stay present.

Remind yourself...

I have already survived harder days than this.

This meeting will come...

And it will pass.

It is only one moment in my life.

It does not define my future.

It does not define my worth.

I am writing a new story now.

As you walk into that room...

Walk slowly.

Breathe steadily.

FACE YOUR EX - CONFIDENCE AUDIO SCRIPT.

Stand tall.

Look ahead.

If your eyes meet his...

You do not need to look away in fear.

You also do not need to stare.

Simply acknowledge his presence as you would any other person.

Calm.

Respectful.

Composed.

Your confidence speaks louder than words.

If he says something designed to upset you...

Pause before responding.

One breath.

Then another.

Choose your words carefully.

Or choose silence.

Silence is often a sign of strength, not weakness.

You are no longer reacting.

You are responding with wisdom.

Every calm decision you make is another step in your healing.

Now repeat these words with me.

I am calm.

I am confident.

I am emotionally free.

I am stronger than fear.

I trust myself.

I choose peace over conflict.

I choose dignity over drama.

I choose wisdom over reaction.

My future is brighter than my past.

Nothing today can steal the woman I have become.

FACE YOUR EX - CONFIDENCE AUDIO SCRIPT.

Take one final deep breath.

Feel your feet firmly on the ground.

Feel your heart becoming steady.

Notice the quiet strength growing within you.

Carry that strength with you now.

Walk in knowing that your greatest victory is not winning an argument.

It is keeping your peace.

You are no longer defined by yesterday.

You are creating tomorrow.

Go in with confidence.

Go in with grace.

Go in with courage.

You've got this.

And no matter what happens today...

Remember who you are.

You are strong.

You are worthy.

You are resilient.

You are free.

Now walk forward with your head held high.

Your next chapter has already begun.
